2. House and Land Packages

House and land packages displayed on this Website (House and Land Package) consist of land and a house which are sold separately. ### 3. Builders

The Builders are not related entities to Mirvac in any way. Mirvac has no responsibility or liability whatsoever in relation to the actions of or products offered by the Builders. Purchasers must make their own enquiries with the Builder and obtain independent advice before entering into a Building Contract with the Builder.

Mirvac will not be bound by any arrangements a purchaser makes with the Builder. Mirvac makes no representations and gives no warranties as to the Builder's ability to perform the Building Contract. Further, Mirvac will not be liable for delays in construction, any representations made by the Builder or any loss or damage to the purchaser arising from the Building Contract.

The price for the construction of the house component of a House and Land Package is based on specifications provided by the Builder. Variations to the specifications or the Building Contract could also vary the price. Decisions made by the Local, State or Federal Governments may also cause price changes. Purchasers should make appropriate enquiries with the Builder.

The prices shown on this Website do not include duty on a Land Contract, registration fees (including registration fees in relation to the transfer of the land) or any other fees or charges (including legal or settlement agent fees or the costs of other services) incidental to the acquisition of the land.
